

I do not think that this plan should be implemented. I feel that the provisions of this plan will prohibit fair use of copyrighted material without really protecting the copyright owners. It will be at a minimum a big inconvenience to law-abiding end users, but will not stop major-scale pirates who are responsible for the really significant losses to copyright owners.